

Neil Nisker
Executive Vice Chairman

Professional Experience

From 1972 to 1996, Neil helped to build Brown Baldwin Nisker (now known as HSBC Securities) into one of the premier institutional brokerages in Canada. In 1990, Neil was selected by his mentor Sir John Templeton to be one of three managers of Best Investments International Inc., a global equity mutual fund which was managed by Sir John. Neil continued to serve in this capacity until 1999. From 1997 to 1999, Neil was Chairman of Nisker Associates, Inc., Strategic Wealth Management, a registered investment counseling firm for foundations and families which was purchased by YMG Capital. Neil's charitable activities include: Co-Chair UJA Federation of Greater Toronto, Annual Campaign; Co-Chair Campaign for the Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care, Vice Chair Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation; and Chairman of The Jewish Foundation of Greater Toronto.
